

Teacher Login

(edit & delete your info)

E-mail	<input type="text"/>
Password	<input type="password"/>
Forgot It?	<input type="button" value="Enter"/>

Having trouble logging in?

Teaching in Japan Links

Learn Japanese

English OK!

Teaching in Japan

Teacher Insurance

EFL-Law

Links for Japan Teachers

Japan-Guide

Japan Reference

Japan Lite

Hiragana Times

Japan Visitor

Mags for Teachers in Japan

Kansai Scene

JapanZine

Tokyo Journal

Japan Times

FindaTeacher.net

[\[Get Students!\]](#) [\[About Us\]](#) [\[Help\]](#) [\[Resources\]](#) [\[Contact Us\]](#)

"Made for Teachers by Teachers" FindaNet, Inc.

How does it work?

生徒はこちら

Teaching in Japan and Need Students? Look no further!

We are currently introducing over 1200 teachers to students weekly. If you would like to be found by people who want to study a foreign language, just fill in findateacher.Net's free teacher sign-up form. When your confirmation e-mail arrives, follow the simple instructions and you're on your way to getting new students!

What Languages? 56 Languages!

Algerian, Azerbaijani, Arabic, Burmese, Bengali, Bulgarian, Cambodian, Chinese (Cantonese), Chinese (Mandarin), Chinese (Taiwanese), Czech, Danish, Dutch, English, Estonian, Filipino, Finnish, Farsi, French, German, Greek, Hebrew, Hindi, Hungarian, Icelandic, Italian, Indonesian, Japanese, Korean, Latvian, Lithuanian, Malaysian, Nepalese, Norwegian, Persian, Polish, Portuguese, Romanian, Russian, Rwandan, Serbo-Croatian, Spanish, Sri Lankan, Sudanese, Swahili, Swedish, Tagalog, Tamil, Tunisian, Thai, Turkish, Ukranian, Urdu, Vietnamese, OR Zulu.

You'd be surprised at the number of people out there looking for a teacher of YOUR native language every day. We only ask that you are a native speaker or nearly native in the language(s) you choose to teach.

How Do Students Find Me?

The information you submit is posted to the nationwide findateacher.Net database. Prospective students browse our SenseiSagasu.com site and are able to look over your background, location, experience, as well as your (optional) hobbies, physical characteristics and more. To make your record more appealing to students - a photo, sound clip, and proof of credentials can also be included.

What Will My Record Look Like?

Want to see a sample of what a teacher's profile looks like? Or, want to see that same sample translated into Japanese. Or, how about actually browsing our current SenseiSagasu.com database (in Japanese) to see exactly what other teachers have posted so far?

What Does It Cost? Nothing!

findateacher.Net doesn't charge teachers a single yen, penny, peseta, franc, whatever! Our service for teachers is completely free. Students pay a small fee for their chosen teachers' contact information. This enables us to advertise in national publications to attract prospective students.

Questions?: Find out more...

At findateacher.Net, YOU make the rules:

- Teach where/when/who/how you want
- Use materials you know and like
- Set your own prices
- No salary limits
- No wasteful running around
- Start/take a break/quit when you want
- Get paid for the amount of work you do
- No making someone else money
- No ludicrous contracts

Free Japanese Study Radio!

www.nihongo.fm

- No dress code
- No weird office politics
- No unnecessary paperwork

See our User Agreement

FindaNet, Inc., K2 Buliding 1st Floor,
15-4 Maruyama-cho Shibuya-ku, Tokyo
〒150-0044

